4 Senators Added to Space Unit

Associated Press

Four new members won places on the Senate's Space Committee yesterday. It was increased from 13 to 15 members and given permanent status.

The new members include the only woman senator, Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine) and Sens. Carl Hayden (D-Ariz.), chairman of the Appropriations Committee, Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla.) and Jacob K. Javits (R-N. Y.).

Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Texas), majority leader and chairman of the previous interim or special committee, retains his place at the top of the Democrats in the group.

Other members of the special group who continue are Sens. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.), Theodore F. Green (D-R. I.), Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.), Clinton P. Anderson (D-N. M.), Stuart Symington (D-Mo.), Styles Bridges (R-N. H.), Leverett Saltonstall (R-Mass.), Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.), John W. Bricker (R-Ohio) and Bourke B. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa).
